Description

R. J. Wilson was part of the Tooman Crew which was originally a B-24 crew assigned to the 458th BG. When the crew volunteered for the Aprodite Project they were transferred to the 388th on August 11, 1944. The crew never flew any missions with the 388th out of Knettishall, instead it flew its missions out of Fersfield for the Aphrodite Project. R. J. Wilson did fly a few 388th missions as a spare to another crew.
