KILLED IN ACTION—Captain L. Glenn Griffith, son of Mrs. Lucy Griffith of 806 Niles street, has been reported killed in action on September 1 in England, according to word received today by his mother and wife, the former Miss Mildred Chesterman, who is now living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Chesterman, 1311 Beale avenue. Captain Griffith left the United States for the European theater in January of this year and was operations officer and the pilot of a B-24 Liberator bomber. In addition to his wife and mother, the flier is survived by a 10-day-old daughter and a brother, Albert Griffith, who now resides in Coalinga, Calif. Captain Griffith was educated in the Bakersfield schools.
