

COLLAPSE!

Strong allied organizations have crossed the Rhine. The last natural defense line in the West is lost. The war is just before the end. The Allied superiority is more powerful than ever before. Resistance means no more honest fighting but a massacre that has lost all meaning. MAKE FINAL!

RESCUE!

1. YOU CAN REVEAL by your hands held high, getting closer to the Allies shouting "I surrender!" (I give myself up). Make it clear that you give up: helmet down, coupling also. Waving a handkerchief or leaflet.
2. YOU CANNOT, THEN wait until the attack has reached you. Or stay behind when the others are withdrawn. Caution: Make it clear that you failed least from the fight. Fanatics who continue to struggle despite the hopeless situation are lost.
3. YOU CAN ALSO NOT, THEN do everything you can to leave the combat zone. We want to save your life. But who continues to fight, cannot be spared. Are you with civilians, then you can sign up immediately after the arrival of the Allied authorities.
